

Unit: Launching the Writing Workshop

Grade: K

Task: Student Work Sample

Title: I Start My School

The following student artifact has been retyped; please see a copy of the original student work at the end of this document. Comments about student work can be found in the box on the right.

I Start My School

When I started my school.

Then I walked to the school. Then I went to the school.

Then they saw me. Then I do lots of fun.

Then I go to the home.

Then I take off my school clothes.

The writer "zoomed" in on a small moment (One time, one place).

he writer put her story into pictures and words.

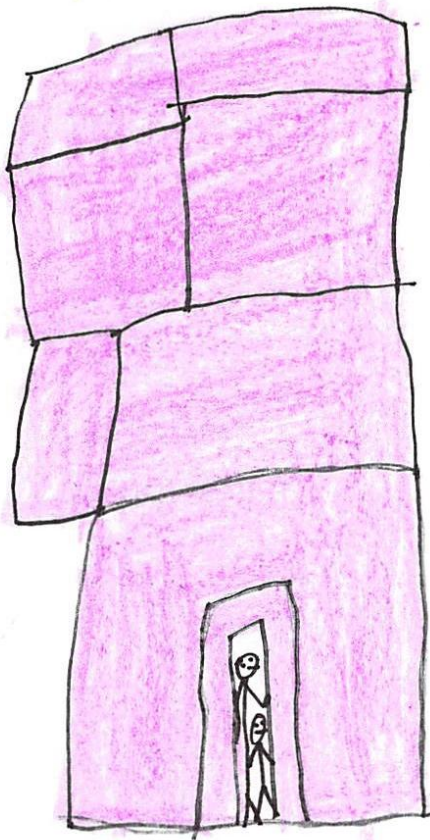

The writer added a cover with a title (see student sample).

The writer stretched each word out by putting down all the sounds s/he heard (see student sample).

The writer told her/his story over multiple pages with a beginning, middle and end.

The writer wrote some high frequency words correctly and labeled the pictures (see student sample).

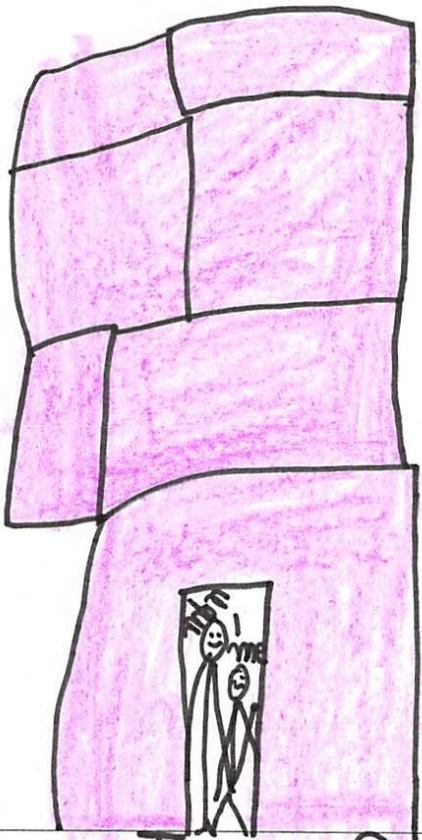

The writer ended the story within the moment.
