Title: Sledding With My Mom When I Hit The Bump

The following student artifact has been retyped; please see a copy of the original student work at the end of this document. Comments about student work can be found in the box on the right.

Sledding With My Mom When I Hit The Bump

I jumped in my sled. I was ready to sled down.

I got ready to go down the hill. My mom pushed me.

I hit a big bump. My mom was nervous that I would fall off. I did not fall off the sled. I was surprised.

I ran up the hill. My legs were tired.

I felt good so did mom! It was a good day.

The writer "zoomed" in on a small moment (One time, one place).

The writer added a cover with a title (see student sample).

The writer stretched each word out by putting down all the sounds s/he heard (see student sample).

The writer added feelings to the story.

The writer wrote story in sequential order.

The writer wrote about something s/he did.

The writer used some details to describe events in pictures and writing.

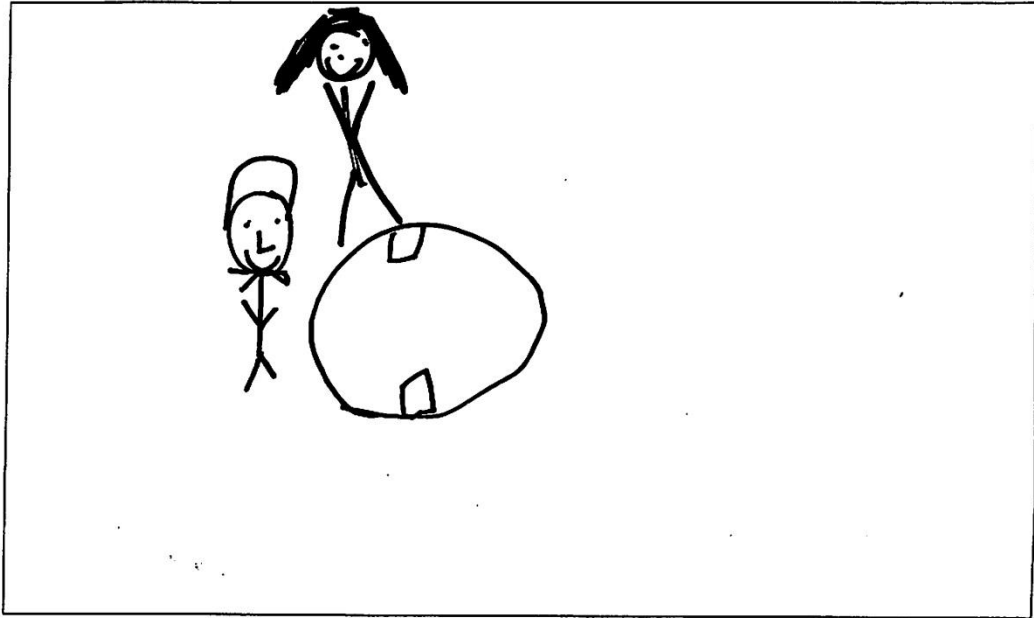

The writer wrote high frequency words correctly (see student sample).

The writer ended the story within the moment.
