Title: Cookie's Week

The following student artifact has been retyped; please see a copy of the original student work at the end of this document. Comments about student work can be found in the box on the right.

To The Best Friend Ever, Olivia,

I think Cookie's Week is funny. It's about Cookie keeps noticing stuff and making messes and it's funny because there are a lot of silly places he goes and also at the end Cookie goes everywhere!

From your BFF,

Anna

The writer states an opinion.

The writer gives a reason to support opinion.

The writer includes three parts of a letter (greeting, body, and signature).

The writer tells a reader the name of the book.

The writer uses linking/transitional words to connect opinion to reasons (because).
